I, the undersigned (hereby referred to as the renter), have rented the above boat and equipment, and enter into this agreement understanding that while 3 Ducks LLC has made every reasonable effort to ensure the safety of myself and my passengers, I/we boat at our own risk. Renter forfeits deposit and is liable for any and all damages to boat and equipment resulting from carelessness, misuse, neglect, reckless operation, beaching and/or shore contact. Renter agrees to pay 3 Ducks LLC for any and all expenses incurred to recover, restore and/or replace any boat and equipment due to such carelessness and/or failure to return, theft and/or loss. This agreement expires once boat and equipment are returned and checked in at the dock, and rental ticket is returned to the store. In the state of Arizona, a person commits the crime of theft by knowingly, and without lawful authority to do so, taking any of the following actions: controlling another person's property with the intent to deprive them of the property, using another person's property or services for an unauthorized period of time, obtaining another person's property and services through material misrepresentation (i.e. fraud), controlling lost property without reasonably attempting to find its owner, and/or controlling stolen property. We prosecute.
